2021 Budget: Motion to adopt the 2021 budget was made by Cory Jackson, seconded by Joe Peterson. 3-0 motion carried.

REFERENDUM DISCUSSION: The referendum to have the position of Clerk and Treasurer changed to appointed rather than elected was not passed at the recent election. Wanda spoke with the Wisconsin Towns Association regarding this matter and decided she would run for the Clerk position at the April 6, 2021 election and actively seek other candidates. Steve also decided to run for Chairman at the April 6, 2021 election. Declaration of Candidacy forms were completed by all current board members.

ROAD MAINTENANCE:

Jim has been working on the road shoulders and is almost complete. He also got some patching done. Plowed for the first snowfall of the season. The wing on the grader should be installed soon. Joe reported there are some road signs down throughout the town. Jim will follow up on this. Jim expressed concerns of standing water in ditches on Klarquist Road. He states the culverts are not plugged. Steve will follow up on this with the DNR.

80-acre parcel: Have not received any information on the title search for this property. The fee has been paid.
