PUBLIC COMMENTS: None

ROAD MAINTENANCE: Ed reports roads are in good condition. The town truck needs clutch repair. He has been working on mower repairs. The wing needs to be installed on the grader. Ed inquired as to past rules for when to plow. He has also come up with a plan for the order of the roads when plowing is needed. A complaint was received from a resident on Helsene Road for his driveway approach. Steve was able to get the Highway Department to fix the issue.

CEMETERIES: The fence has been installed at the Karlsborg Cemetery. Kevin Fossum used his skid steer/auger. Motion to compensate Kevin $300.00 for use of the needed equipment was made by Steve Washkuhn, seconded by Dale Larson. 3-0 motion carried. Steve will contact Gary Erickson to see if the Cemetery Committee will take over marking graves when needed.

COMPREHENSIVE PLAN: Emily from NW Regional Planning attended the last meeting of the Comprehensive Plan. A future land use map was received. Stacy will continue to send updates as she receives them. Progress has been made, and the next meeting date is undetermined at this time.

OLD BUSINESS: Jenelle Lindquist has expressed interest in the Clerks position. If she decides to take it over, Wanda will remain responsible for all Elections.

Correspondence was looked over.

Motion to approve monthly bills as presented was made by Joe Peterson, seconded by Dale Larson. 3-0 motion carried.

FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS: Nomination of Election workers
