PUBLIC COMMENTS: No comments

ROAD MAINTENANCE: roads have been chip sealed. All signs have been done.

Hopkins asked if they could put gate across Tower Road. Steve talked to the WTA in regards with Hopkins request. The decision was made that we will not allow the gate to be installed.

Bill with the highway department for June has been fixed and the new charge was billed.

PROPOSED GRAVEL PIT:

Steve has had a conversation with Jason Towne, and the property is zoned A2 and allows for permitted with CUP. We were advised that we can put stipulations on this if the CUP is issued.

Discussion included many concerns by residents. Concerns were as follows:

- Road quality
- Bridge ratings
- Increased traffic
- Hours of operation
- Environmental impact
- Property Values
- Water quality
- Conflicts with current land use
- Does not improve or promote tourism

Steve would like Tom Swenson to work with us to draft a letter to the county. Tom Swenson agreed to help with this.

Steve made a motion that the Town of Lincoln opposes another gravel pit on Ice House Bridge Rd. A letter will be drafted stating our concerns, seconded by Joe Peterson. 3-0 motion carried
